V. Information Items

A. STAND requested a $300 grant for the event, Camp Darfur on May 22nd. The event is an "interactive awareness and education event that will bring attention to the ongoing genocide in Darfur, Sudan, and will give individuals the opportunity to discover their own power to make a difference." For the event, five tents will be set up on the Humanities Lawn to educate, motivate, and inspire the WWU community.

B. WWU Circle K requested a $646.16 underwrite to help pay for 100 meals from Sodexo for the Hunger Banquet on May 23rd. This event is a dinner designed to show the global disparity of food security and will serve as a forum for discussion about food access, wastefulness, and local action.

C. WWU ACLU-WA requested a $250 underwrite for the event, Reproductive and Free Speech Rights Week on May 23rd-25th. The event will include a speaker from ACLU-WA, show a movie, and sponsor a Speech-In. The club hopes to provide a calm, rational, and primarily safe atmosphere for those in the Western community to have a productive dialogue on this rather controversial issue.

D. Students for a Democratic Society requested a $300 grant for the event, Corporal's Boots with Doris Kent Speaking. "Corporal's Boots" is a movie based on a local soldier. Doris Kent, the mother of the soldier the movie is based on, will then speak about the movie and her experience. It will give a unique experience to Western students to see the impact of war on one of our community members right here in Bellingham.

E. The Philosophy Club requested $500 for the Northwest Student Philosophy Conference on May 26th and 27th. The conference will include a seminar with a guest speaker, food, and a live band. The conference will help with the improvement of WWU's involvement in Philosophy and the further establish the Philosophy department as being one of the best undergrad programs in the U.S.
