V. CHAIR REPORT

Lowe reported that he and Ishmael met with Jane and Sherry to talk about next year and support for the Legislative Liaison. They also discussed the administration's priorities for the year. On Thursday, Lowe and Ishmael will discuss the CDC with Jim Schuster and Patricia Ashby. They will also set up a meeting with Dr. Coughlin to talk about the disAbility Resource Services and ADA compliancy. They also went to the WSL board meeting.

VI. INFORMATION ITEMS

A. COLLEGE CIVICS WEEK

The Secretary of State forum happened on Monday. Students for Civic Engagement are putting on their showing of Frontline's Hot Politics on Thursday. The Yes We Can forum will be held on Saturday.

B. ELECTRONIC TEXTBOOKS

Paul Frances wants to meet with all schools to talk about a digital reader. The University of Texas is a current example of how they will be used/implemented.

C. NEXT YEAR'S PRIORITIES

It was stated that the LAC should begin thinking about next year's legislative agenda, specifically in regards to the diversity aspect. Lowe also reported that he would like all of the LAC members to email him any suggestions they have either for next year's agenda or for issues that could currently be tackled. If the emails reach him before each meeting, they could be listed on the agenda.

D. OTHER INFO.

We have begun handing out registration forms for the Electoral Action Training. Also, there is still no one on the Election Board so all are EXTREMELY ENCOURAGED to join.
