A. Issue of the Month

The Senators first read over the responses from the March issue of the month, and some discussion was held. Since the Dining Hall has decided not to go through with the new meal plan, the students felt that the negative responses from the question of the month showed that it did need to be turned down. As for the April issue of the month, 3 questions were brought to the Senators, they read over each and discussed them all. A few revisions were added by Brandon to question number two about the AS Board of Directors. The Senators also discussed a few new ideas that they feel would be helpful in the advertisement for the AS Board of Directors election, such as having sign up sheets at different events so the Board office could email updates to those who were interested.

Annie Jansen and Lacey Stuart left at 6:43 pm.

A vote was held for all three questions. Vote for question # 1 about the ROP offices was 0. The vote for question # 2 about the AS elections was 10. And the vote for question # 3 about the possibility of a new AS director position for civil controversy was 1. The new issue of the month is, "Serving on the AS Board of Directors is an excellent leadership opportunity that also offers a competitive salary. Three of the Seven positions on the Board have unopposed races. Why aren't YOU running for a position on the AS Board?"

VII. Other Business

Kelly Hansen was told she is the new Student Senate Parliamentarian.
